SATURDAY EVENING, JULY 23, 1904.

The Care that Prevented a Horror. A train was running away down a steep grade on Saluda Mountain in North Carolina. The speed increased with every foot traveled. The airbrakes would not work. Trainmen were help-less, passengers in a state of fear.

Just at the moment when the worst was expected the train ran up a short in-cline and stopped. The next morning in the New York papers, in place of the lists of dead and injured that might have been there was the story of how a safety-switch had worked and had saved many lives.

This was a story of preparation. The railroad company in North Carolina knew of certain dread possibilities on its route. It provided against them and has reaped in the happy conclusion of a terrible threatening incident the reward for its forethought.

When the Slocum took fire in the East river the first fact revealed about the boat was lack of preparation against the horror then impending. Yet the possibility of what was happening had been demonstrated many times—with what should have been everlasting force in the case of the Seawanhaka. What is the difference in the education of passenger-carrying corporations which brings it about that in North Carolina they take care while in New York they take chances?—New York

A Remarkable Combination.

Mr. Geo. T. Carneal, of Massaponax, Spotsylvania, has a turkey hen who made a nest in the edge of the woods near his home. After laying a number of eggs she commenced setting. The nest not being full Mr. Carneal put under her, in addition to her own, six hen eggs. When hatching time was over she came forth with five young turkeys, six chickens and seven partridges. She struts around proudly with her varied brood. The little partridges are fed with the chickens and turkeys and are tame, but will not allow handling. It near his home. After laying a number tame, but will not allow handling. It is not thought the partridge eggs were laid in the turkey nest, but hatched out in a partridge nest and must have become separated from their mother from some cause and sought refuge under the turkey while she was hatching. Many persons have been shown this remark-able combination, which can be seen at any time at Mr. Carneal's home. - [Fredericksburg Star.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children white teering with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhoza. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind. Triumphs of Modern Surgery.

Wonderful things are done for the human body by surgery. Organs are taken out and scraped and polished and put back, or they may be removed entirely; bones are spliced; pipes take the place of diseased sections of value and place of diseased sections of veins; anti-septic dressings are applied to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, which causes them to heal without maturation and in oneto heal without maturation and in one-third the time required by the old treat-ment. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It a'so allays the pain and soreness. #### UNHAPPINESS DISPELLED.

Many women weep and wall and refuse to be comforted because their once mag-nificent tresses have become thin and faded. Many men incline to profanity because the flies bite through the thin because the files bite through the thin thatch on their craniums. It will be good news to the miserable of both sexes, to learn that Newbro's Herpicide has been placed upon the market. This is the new scalp germicide and antiseptic that acts by destroying the germ or microbe that is the underlying cause of all hair destruction. Herpicide is a new preparation, made after a new formula on an entirely new principle. Anyone who has tried it will testify as to its worth. Try it yourself and be convinced. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.
